ORDER ON MOTION

Defendant in this case waived a detention hearing in open court on February 13, 2007. Accordingly, and for good cause stated in the motion for detention order (Doc. # 3) filed February 8, 2007, it is ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED to the extent of its request for detention. Further, based on the evidence adduced at the hearing, the Magistrate Judge concludes that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed the offense charged in the complaint. Therefore, it is ORDERED that the defendant is bound over to the district court for further proceedings. It is further ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
